

ICYE FINLAND

WORK PROFILE 2024-25

WELCOME TO VOLUNTEER IN FINLAND!

We are happy that you are interested to come and experience an ICYE voluntary work period in Finland! This Work Profile of Maailmanvaihto – ICYE Finland has been made in order to give you an idea of the types of voluntary work placements the ICYE program can offer.

In this profile, you will find general information on ICYE voluntary work in Finland as well as examples of possible voluntary workplaces. Please keep in mind that the profile doesn't hold all the projects, and not all the projects of the profile host volunteers every year. In the matching process, we will do our best to take into account your preferences but we cannot guarantee you a place in any particular workplace or area in Finland.

Volunteering Mostly in the Fields of Social work and Education

Most ICYE voluntary work placements in Finland are in the fields of social work and education. Social work in this context means child welfare institutions and work among elderly people and people with special needs, for example. Voluntary work is mostly done in non-profit organisations and institutions. Social work in Finland is mainly carried out by the government and municipalities, but there are also many active non-governmental organizations in this field.

In social work placements, the most important things for a volunteer to have are a positive attitude and motivation for voluntary work and learning new things. In addition, previous experience, interest in social work, and some knowledge of English (or Finnish) will make it easier to find a social work placement for you. Especially at the beginning of the period and for a person without a special profession or experience, the work is often quite practical.

The work tasks depend much on the volunteer's own initiative- There is usually an opportunity to shape the work tasks according to your interests and skills. So, please be active and make suggestions on developing your tasks during your voluntary work period!

Most of the workplaces are situated in the countryside, and the public transport connections to nearby towns and cities may not be very good, so it may not be easy to visit the city very often. But anyway, one of the most important parts of the experience is to get to know the culture through the local community. There nevertheless are also some workplaces in the capital city Helsinki and smaller towns.

Most of the volunteering opportunities are in organisations in which the volunteer is accommodated at the workplace, such as folk high schools. Please note we have resources to place only a few volunteers in workplaces with host family accommodation (schools and kindergartens, for example) and we will be able to confirm these placements only after finding the host families.

Tell us about your Preferences, Skills, and Interests

We do our best to find you a workplace where you can use your skills and learn. Please read through carefully which types of voluntary workplaces are available and send us the Preference List with information on the types of placements you are interested in. The information you give us is important for us in the search for the best possible voluntary workplace for you.

You can find the Preference List attached to the end of this Work Profile. In the Preference List form, you can also give us more information on your skills and experiences. It is our aim that the voluntary workplace can benefit from your contributions.

DIFFERENT TYPES OF VOLUNTARY WORK PLACEMENTS

These are the different types of voluntary work placements that Maailmanvaihto – ICYE Finland coordinates:

A) Child Welfare Institution

- Child welfare institutions include different kinds of organisations, but usually, ICYE volunteers work in foster homes. Foster homes are created for socially excluded children who are taken into custody from their biological parents because of drug and alcohol abuse or mental and social problems. The ages of the children vary from toddlers to teenagers. The community provides the children with care, social education, and a home-like, safe environment for growing. Most foster homes in Finland work in close co-operation with cities and municipalities that finance and monitor them.
- The volunteers participate in the daily activities of the foster home, supporting the staff and the children. Volunteers spend time with the kids giving them a possibility to learn from their language and culture. They organise free-time activities for them and also help with household tasks like cooking and cleaning. It is also possible that the volunteer creates for the children activities such as sports, arts, and languages.

B) Folk High School

- Folk high schools are boarding schools for mostly young adults aged from 16 to 30+. The folk high schools provide different types of study programs and courses from arts to languages and open university studies. Folk high schools are good options for young people who want to spend their "gap year" efficiently and to study something that will improve their possibilities for further studies. Many folk high schools also provide Finnish language studies for immigrants and refugees to support their adaptation process. Most of the folk high schools are situated in the countryside. This provides excellent opportunities for social development and learning from the Finnish culture directly from the Finnish youth. Good motivation and active initiative-taking are necessary for a successful voluntary work period in a folk high school.
- The volunteers' work tasks vary according to their skills and interests: from assisting teachers, giving language courses, and organising free-time activities for the students to practical work like helping in the kitchen, library, or office, or gardening and maintenance work. Sometimes it may be possible to combine voluntary work and studying some subjects in the folk high school. In some folk high schools, the volunteers work with immigrant students who study the Finnish language and culture.

C) Kindergarten

- Kindergartens are day-care centres for children (aged between 1 and 6 years) whose both parents work during the daytime. Volunteers help the staff with the daily chores such as playing with the children, helping the kids in eating and dressing them into outdoor clothes, and cleaning the kindergarten. We have found the kindergartens to be the best places to learn the language!
- The volunteers support the staff of the kindergarten in their daily work. Some volunteers have been placed in English-language or Spanish-language kindergartens or in kindergartens using special pedagogic methods, like Montessori or Steiner. Volunteers who work in a kindergarten are accommodated in host families.

D) Old People's Home

- Old people's homes are organisations that take care of elderly people who are not able to live on their own. These homes offer accommodation, care, and daily activities for them. Usually the elderly live in the rooms of one or two people, and the houses include common rooms for all the inhabitants. The homes aim at creating a homely atmosphere.
- The volunteers help the staff in daily work tasks, such as assisting the elderly in dining and providing them with different daily activities. It is important that the volunteer is motivated to learn Finnish since the old people often do not know English.

E) School / Educational Institution

- In the Finnish elementary school, there are 9 grades (with the possibility for an extra 10th grade) and the children are aged from six to sixteen. Most of the schools in Finland are run by the government. Some schools wish to host volunteers in order to create for the pupils a possibility for intercultural learning and practicing a foreign language.
- The volunteers assist the teachers in the daily school work and also help the staff in other tasks like organising international days or other happenings. Some of the volunteers are placed in other educational institutions, such as schools for students with special needs (physical or mental disabilities) and vocational schools.

F) Work with People with Special Needs

- Some of the work placements offer education, work, and accommodation services for people with special needs. There might be people with developmental, mental and/or physical disabilities and challenges in learning in these placements. Volunteers work, for instance, in day activity centres, schools, arts & crafts workshops, and communities.
- The voluntary tasks with people with disabilities depend on the type of workplace in which the volunteer is working. Work can be very practical: helping people in their everyday duties, such as dining, but at the same time there are opportunities to assist in different types of therapy, art classes, handicraft workshops, agriculture, garden work, animal care, etc. Working with people with special needs can be challenging and requires some patience, especially in the beginning – but it is also very interesting and rewarding. It is important that the volunteer is motivated to learn Finnish since people with disabilities often do not know English.

G) Other Workplaces

- Some projects do not fall into any of the above-mentioned categories. There are, for instance, some cultural projects, non-governmental organisations, and local voluntary centres offering voluntary work placements.

About the Preference List

Please, fill in the "Preference List" form and give it to your sending ICYE organisation. You can find the Preference List attached at the end of this Work Profile. We do our best to find you a suitable voluntary work placement. The more you tell about your interests and personal skills, the more likely the placement meets your wishes.

We nevertheless cannot guarantee you the placement you have chosen and we want to remind you that the wishes are not binding. They only give us an idea of what kind of work you are interested in. We encourage the work placements to contact you and have online meetings with you so that you can get to know each other and find out if the expectations of both of you match.

When you get the information on your voluntary workplace from ICYE Finland, please contact the workplace prior to your arrival in Finland! We will provide you with contact details. Contacting the voluntary workplace is important in order to get a clearer idea of the place you are going to: if you have any questions, you can reach out to your mentor. It is also nice to get to know each other in advance.

Examples of Voluntary Workplaces

On the following pages, you will find examples of some voluntary workplaces we co-operate with. Usually, each workplace hosts one ICYE volunteer at a time but in some cases, there may be two ICYE volunteers at once.

Whether all of the workplaces take a volunteer depends on various factors, such as their financial situation and availability of accommodation. For projects that cannot offer accommodation, ICYE Finland will need to find a host family before we can confirm the placement for the volunteer.

1. Lepola's Kindergarten (kindergarten)
2. The English Kindergarten of Kotka (kindergarten)
3. Kainuu College (folk high school)
